OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS.

Admitting that it is none of our business, it does seem a pity that Harvard still refuses to number its football players. We are not speaking now from the standpoint of the pleasure and convenience of the public, although in these expensive days there wouldn't be much football if the public didn't pay the bills. But we are looking at it from a different angle.

As a matter of fact, that theory looks like nonsense, anyhow. In these left end, who is expected to play against the Crimson. Biair was at the field to day, but he was not used by the varsity in the dummy scrimmage. Hulman who played against the Tigers, being in his education. Guerney, limping a triffe, but less than yesterday, was in his regular place at right guard and the rest of the team lined up as it will Saturday. The surface of the Bowl was damp after an all day and night rain and because of the uncertain footing. Jones kept the regulars out of a scrimmage, Adminy scrimmage against the second varsity was the order of the day and the two teams were at it three-quarters of an hour.

The Varsity was made up as follows:

On the second team to-day were many men who are almost sure to get into the Harvard game. Among them were Cross, the guard; Norris, the big center; their, last year's guard, who is in better shape than he was a year ago; Deaver, the right end; and Becket, Speiden, Knapp and Wight, in the backfield. Blair went through the paces at left end for a short while on the second team, but dronged out early. Special forms of play were used, built on Harvard lines, but there was no tackling.

While the Varsity and second Varsity were going through their soft scrimnage, the third Varsity and the scrubs held a real scrimmage. Mike Eddy, the big end, was on the third team and gave a good account of himself. He will be in shape to play against Harvard if need be. The third team was directed by Russell Murphy.

It is to be hoped that Princeton will get some good material from this year's freshman class, because the Tigers are going to need the best to replace such football men as Wittmer, Keck, Lourie, Garrity, Stinson and Hooper. It looks as if Roper had all of his racing machine left except the engine.

To-day the eleven worked with Hartley at right end, Ladd at right tackle and Churchill at right half-back. Otherwise the layout was the same at that which started the Princeton game ten days ago. Crocker, who doubtless will be in his old position when the time comes, did some work in the signal drill but kept out of the scrimmage. Tierney did not work on the line, confining himself to running about the side lines. Fitts was in the backfield combination with Owen and Chapin, and also with Coburn, but the Harvard kicker was not put where he had a chance of being hurt. In fact, it is stated that Fitts did not run through the fast signal drill at the finish and when the coaches were driving everyone

Special instructions to the ends followed, after which the varsity was lined up for the scrimmage.

On the offensive the varsity tore through the scrubs with decided effect and later, when assuming the defensive, fought back with the irresistible fight so evident against the Lebanon Valley. Frequent changes were made from time to time, twenty players being pressed into service.

With that in mind the Yankee club, through Col. Huston, wired to the Texas town on Monday that the latter's terms were accepted. Much to the surprise of the New York club, however, a telegram was received yesterday expressing regret, but saying that arrangements had been closed with the Cincinnati club whereby, the Reds would train at Mineral Wells. The Yankees, therefore, will have to took further for their training place, and the residents of Mineral Wells will have the pleasure of seeing such stars as Eddle Roush, Heinie Groh and Ivy Wingo, instead of such stars as Babe Ruth, Waite Hoyt and Carl Mays.

Mineral Wells is near Fort Worth and was used by the White Sox for several years. Wherever the Yanks train—and they won't be sure the next time until the papers are signed, sealed and delivered—they will play a series with the St. Louis Cardinals. That much has been tacitly agreed on. The series will be three or five games and won't interfere with a trip north with the Brooklyn Dodgers if the borough rivals team up again, as they are expected to do.

Chairman Muldoon of the Commission evidently holds the opinion that Pesek was but a tool, for he supplemented the expulsion of the grappler by revoking the license of Larney Lichtenstein, manager of Pesek Lichtenstein, although several times ordered by Deputy O'Rourke to instruct Pesek to cease his foul work annarently made no effort The White Sox will train in Sequin, Tex., next spring. Bantams Give Poorest Exhibition Yet Seen Here.

Sammy Nable, former amateur bantam champion, last night received the judges' decision over Phil O'Dowd of Columbus in a twelve round bout in the Pioneer Sporting Club. The contest was one of the poorest exhibitions yet given by a pair of bantams in this city. Each appeared to be afraid of the other, and as a result not one solid punch was landed by either boxer. O'Dowd recently gained a decision over Joe Lynch, the former bantam champion.

In another twelve round contest Johnny Innhouse was awarded the verdict over Murray Schwartz, former amateur and A. E. F. bantam champion. Although Schwartz appeared to have the better of the bout, the judges decided Innhouse the winner.
